

TENNESSEE GENERAL ASSEMBLY FISCAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

FISCAL NOTE

HB 806 - SB 1253

February 25, 2009

SUMMARY OF BILL: Grants a person who is found to not be the biological father of a child the right to recover all payments of child support, as well as court costs and attorney's fees, from the mother or actual biological father of the child.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Revenue - Not Significant
Increase State Expenditures - Not Significant

Increase Local Revenue - Not Significant
Increase Local Expenditures - Not Significant

Assumptions:

- A small increase in cases in the court system, which will result in additional state and local government expenditures for processing the cases and additional state and local government revenue from fees, taxes and costs collected. These expenditures and revenues are estimated to be not significant.
- Pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 36-2-309(b), the State of Tennessee is not liable to any person, nor can it be ordered to refund to any person, any moneys received that are subsequently set aside by the court due to a finding of non-paternity of the person previously adjudicated as the child's father.

CERTIFICATION:

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "James W. White".

James W. White, Executive Director

/kml

HB 806 - SB 1253